OFFICERS' REPORTS

PRESIDENT'S REPORT Grades K-5 enjoyed the LEAD U Assembly sponsored by PTG. There was great feedback from the staff who already inquired about booking the company for next year. Committee head needed for Art Fair this year. The Field Day committee in need of two co-chairs. Their duties will include purchasing and distributing the popsicles and organizing volunteers for the water stations. Mayfair Event Co-Chairs are needed (all Mayfair sub-chairs are filled.)

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT
As always, the Holidays at Allenwood were festive and fun! Thank you, PTG, for running the Holiday Shoppe and for planning fabulous parties.
We are celebrating Wellness Week. Students in Mrs. Seber's class are sharing daily announcements and challenges for the classrooms. For example, on Monday, we learned about eating well and our challenge was to do 20 sit-ups or push-ups!
The Lead U Assembly was one of the best we have seen! The performers were incredibly enthusiastic and reminded us about the importance of teamwork, perseverance, and leadership. Thank you, PTG for sponsoring Lead U!

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Winterfest- Presented by Grace Green
111 students signed up. Police officers will be in attendance. The committee is still looking for volunteers and chaperones. Deadline to purchase tickets is January 24th.

Yearbook- Presented by Kristin Coman
91 books have been sold. Cover created by Wall High school art students. 1/31 deadline for personalized yearbook. 2/20 is the deadline for regular yearbook orders. Pictures were taken of the Veterans Day celebration which will be added to the yearbook this year.

Theater Club- Presented by Kristin Coman
75 cast and crew for Go West play. Parts were assigned today. March 6th is the final performance. Staff can purchase t-shirts for the play. All proceeds will go towards the curtain. Shout-Outs will be available for purchase in the program this year.

Terracycle- Presented by Lauren Galok on behalf of Melanie Cortese
The Terracycle contest is in full swing. The classes in the lead are: Beirne with 788 Witt with 461 and Abeal with 425. Last year the prize was a kickball game with staff, this year's prize to be determined.

Gertrude Hawk- Presented by Lauren Galok on behalf of Mandy Roarty- Catalogs to be sent home next week. Sale runs until Friday, February 21st. Pick up will be at Mandy's house

Pocketbook Bingo- Presented by Megan McCay
The event will take place at the Manasquan Elks Lodge on 3/21/2020. The format will be similar to last year's event with a couple of changes to the bingo rules (as per our host company's recommendation.) If there are multiple winners, the bag will be put up for raffle and the value of the bag will be split amongst the winners. Lauren has compiled a list for the CPOs of Classroom donation themes that will be distributed early February. We are currently seeking donations for the Dine and Donate restaurant pull as well as Bag Sponsors and advertisements for the program book.

Allergy Committee- Presented by Sharon Zanette- The nutrition binder is in the office. This is a binder containing the nutritional information for every item served in the cafeteria by Wall Food Services. New guidelines for class parties are being discussed.

OTHER BUSINESS
Discussion regarding alternative times to hold monthly PTG meetings. There may be a trial run of alternating between an afternoon meeting and a nighttime meeting. Online survey suggested to gauge interest. Discussion regarding making three meetings mandatory for CPO representatives in the future.
