PRINCIPAL'S REPORT: Dr. O'Connell started off her report by sharing the Week of Respect was a success and met with a heartfelt compliment from an administrator 'this school exudes love and learning by staff and students.' Halloween parties will be permitted with 2 volunteers. Conferences will be held in person on a shortened day schedule. Please send students in with a healthy snack. The book fair was met with excitement from students and gave a sense of normalcy to our building.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

❖ BYOP/ Trunk or Treat: Presented by Ally Blumenthal. Ally began the update stating that there are 17 trunks with over 200 presale tickets. Highschool volunteers and adults have volunteered to help clean up and set up this event. There will be a DJ, hayride, and bake sale. This event runs from 5:30-7pm.

❖ Yearbook : Presented by Doreen. Doreen opened up her update with a thank you to all the photographers. Yearbook sales started 10/6. 118 books have been sold. Allenwood Dragons will design the yearbook cover.

❖ Dining Out: Presented by Chrissy Byrnes. Sundaes fundraiser profited about $700. A new dining out event is planned for 10/26 at Cluck U from 4-8 pm. November's dining out will be 11/16 at MJ's in Neptune from 11-closing. Check facebook for more details.

❖ Spirit Wear : Presented by Lauren Chasinov. A Winter Sale will begin Nov 8th and run through Nov 19th. Sweatshirts, t-shirts and some winter items will all be on sale. Great ideas for Holiday Shopping. Looking for a delivery week of Dec 15th. Pay attention to facebook and remind app for sale openings.

❖ Scholastic Book Fair: Presented by Lauren Chasinov. Scholastic book fair went so well. Kids were all excited! Thank you to Dr.O for working with us to set a date for in person shopping as well as making it happen for volunteers. The custodial staff deserves a huge thank you for getting us tables and being available for drop off and pick up of items. We earned enough money for our subscription for our book bundles for next year and have a good amount of money left over for classroom or building needs. I will be in touch with DR.O to see what will be useful. We were able to donate a new book to all teachers at the end of the fair and every single teacher had books donated to them from their students and families. We are also delivered the sets of book bundles to the library from this year's subscription and Ms. Moonan was so excited and appreciative. We are excited for our next fair in the spring.

OTHER BUSINESS :

Box tops were updated by Melissa McCullen. She emphasized the importance of getting the Box Tops app to earn money for our school.
